

Arts Education & Teaching Assistant Internship

The Arts Education & Teaching Assistant Intern will work closely with the Site Coordinator and art faculty to assist in the successful operations and facilitation of art classes and workshops at Maud Morgan Arts. This is a great opportunity to get hands-on experience in all the facets of a non-profit community art center.

Responsibilities

- Assist art teachers with classroom organization, including project set-up, art supplies, and general art studio maintenance.
- Greet and welcome students and parents as they arrive for drop-off and pick-up.
- Provide individual attention to students needing help with an activity.
- Establish a relationship with students to create an engaging experience for all.
- Alert teachers of any issues or concerns.
- Assist with ongoing one-time workshops, artist talks, and events, as scheduled.

About Maud Morgan Arts

Maud Morgan Arts builds community through the visual arts by connecting, inspiring, and enriching individual lives.

We serve children, teens, and established and emerging artists of all ages and all levels who create, teach, exhibit, and collaborate at Maud Morgan Arts. All who value the visual arts — young and old, beginner and professional — can choose from a wide range of innovative and imaginative visual art classes and programs. Here, you can study with some of Boston's finest professional artists in studios purposely designed for ceramics, printmaking, painting/drawing, and sculpture. You can attend life drawing sessions, workshops, film screenings, or rent a studio for independent work.
